

Anger & Dementia

A Conversation Guide for Family and Friends

Thank you for being here and for taking the time to engage in this conversation with us.

Anger is something many people experience in daily life. Living with dementia can add new challenges to experiencing and expressing anger. Today's conversation is not about eliminating anger. It is about understanding anger and navigating anger with empathy and compassion.

CONVERSATION AGREEMENTS

As we engage in this conversation, we also invite you to:

- | | |
|--|--|
| ✓ Respect every person's feelings, whether you understand them or not. | ✓ Suspend judgment and seek to understand each person's experience with empathy. |
| ✓ Pause for reflection before responding. | ✓ Listen to connect, not to correct or fix. |

DISCUSSION PROMPTS

1. What stood out to you in the video?
2. What surprised or challenged your thinking?
3. What emotions or experiences might exist beneath what looks like anger?
4. What do you think persons living with dementia most wanted you to understand about anger?
5. How might today's conversation change the way you respond when a person living with dementia seems angry?
